LIBRARY REGULATIONS.

[EXTRACT FROM THE BY-LAWS.]

XXI. The following ſhall be the regulations for the uſe of the Library:

1.

No book or manuſcript ſhall at any time be lent to any perſon to be removed from the Library.

2.

No manuſcript in the Library, nor any paper read before the Society and depoſited in its archives, ſhall be publiſhed, except by the direction of the Society, or with the conſent of the Executive Committee.

3.

The hours during which the Library ſhall be open, ſhall be determined, from time to time, by the Executive Committee.

4.

During ſuch hours, any member of the Society may have free acceſs to conſult any book or manuſcript, except ſuch as may be deſignated by the Executive Committee, and to make extracts from the ſame under the authority of the Librarian. Any perſon not a member, may obtain the like privilege of conſultation from the Preſident or Librarian, if known to them, or upon the recommendation of ſome other member, to whom the applicant is known. But no perſon not a member, ſhall be permitted to take extracts from the manuſcripts of the Society, excepting the donors or depoſitors of the ſame, without ſpecial authority from the Executive Committee.

It ſhall be the duty of the Librarian, or his Aſſiſtant, to report to the Executive Committee any injury done to any book or manuſcript by any perſon conſulting the ſame; and the ſaid Committee may, at their diſcretion, lay ſuch reports before the Society. For any ſuch injury, the perſon doing it ſhall make ſuch pecuniary compenſation as the ſaid Committee ſhall judge proper; and if he be not a member, the Committee ſhall have power to prohibit him from further acceſs to the Library.
